Dear Vickie and Jimmy. I am in the jury room and I got here early this morning as Dad had to be at the office early. No one else is here yet but the bailiff let me in. I don't have to be here until 9:30 A.M. so I ride in with Dad and take the bus home. I have my car parked down near where I get off the bus.

It is very interesting being on the jury and I am on a long medical case where the Dr. is being sued for malpractice.

Our weather is beautiful but the afternoons get too hot as it has been in the 90's. Our old fan still works. I am going to call you Sunday. Love, Mom.
